"I WOULD RATHER BE RIGHT THAN BE PRESIDENT."—Henry Clay.

VOL. II. RALEIGH, FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 24, 1866. NO. 15.

Conservative Soldiers' and Sailors' Convention Called at Cleveland, Ohio—The President's policy and the Philadelphia National Union Convention to be Sustained.

WASHINGTON, Aug., 24.—The Soldiers and Sailors approving the President's restoration policy, and endorsing the principles announced by the National Union Convention at Philadelphia, have decided to hold their convention at Cleveland, Ohio, September 17th, instead of Chicago, as heretofore announced. The following are the material portions of the call issued for the convention:

To the Soldiers and Sailors who served in the Army and Navy of the United States during the late Rebellion: In pursuance of a resolution of a meeting of soldiers now or late in the Union army, those of you who approve the restoration policy of the President and the principles announced by the National Union Convention at Philadelphia, are requested to assemble at Cleveland, on the 17th day of September next, for consultation on the momentous issue, now convulsing our country. We need not argue to you at length the importance of these issues, nor your duty to take part in their settlement. After five years of fierce and destructive war, in which our arms were gloriously triumphant, the Union for which we fought is still practically unrestored. Why is this? We struggled to maintain the rightful supremacy of the general government, to conquer all who in arms disputed its authority, to make every rebellious citizen yield to its laws.

We held throughout the war that the Union is indissoluble and its powers, as expounded by its courts, supreme. That no State can of its own motion withdraw, or at the will of its sister States be excluded, and that the duty of each State to remain in the Union and its right to take part in the government are alike absolute.

Every object of the war ever recognized by or known to the army and navy has been thoroughly achieved. The Southern people, decimated, impoverished and subdued, have, for more than a year past, abandoned the rebellion, and now only ask that the Union for which we fought may be recognized as existing, and that they may be dealt with as the Constitution and laws prescribe.

In their anxiety to restore the Union and bring harmony to its councils, they have gone beyond a mere silent submission to the laws. Through their delegates at the National Union Convention they solemnly renounced the doctrines of nullification and secession, from which the war arose, repudiated the rebel debt, and declared of sacred obligation the national debt; proclaimed the faith of the nation pledged to the continuance of bounties and pensions to loyal soldiers and sailors and their families; declared slavery forever abolished, and the freedmen entitled to equal protection of law in person and property with their former masters. Their platform is not only one of emphatic loyalty, but it is, moreover, most liberal in spirit on all the great issues growing out of the war.

The character of the men who represented the Southern States in that Convention precludes us from believing this enunciation of principles to be insincere. They sent to it their foremost statesmen, men who like Rives, Graham, Orr, Parsons, Sharkey, Houston, Brockenbrough, Hunt, Manning and Stevens, were known throughout the land, before the war, as men of the highest character and influence. Among the five hundred delegates from the South, there was not a voice or a vote dissenting from the resolutions adopted by the Convention.

If the best of the Southern people are ever to be believed, we must accept these solemn declarations as sincere. We do accept them as conclusive evidence that a great majority of the Southern people, sick of war and anarchy, and longing for the restoration of free government, are ready to bear true allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the Union.

We are therefore unwilling to see the Southern people held longer in vassalage. They are our countrymen, citizens of the United States, who have incurred penalties, but who have rights. Those who wilfully participated in the rebellion, and are unpardoned, are subject to the penalties prescribed for treason. But though individuals may be tried, convicted and punished, communities cannot, nor can the States and their people, without a plain violation of the Constitution, be denied the right of representation, through men personally qualified, in the councils of the nation.

The intention of Congress seems to be to deprive them of representation just so long as it suits the purposes of the Radical party. Many assert that it will concede the right whenever the Constitutional amendment shall have been adopted, and each proscribed State shall have ratified it. But it is quite certain that the amendment will not be ratified by three-fourths of the States, and therefore that it will not be adopted. Some, perhaps many, of the Northern States will reject it, and we cannot expect its legal ratification by any of the lately insurrectionary States. If there were no other reason why the Southern States will reject it, it is enough that it proposes to disfranchise nearly all the men of the South who have influence over the masses of the people. * * * *

However much we regret to sever cherished political associations, and to co-operate with former enemies, we must prefer to act with those who have been wrong and are now right, rather than with those who were right and now are wrong.

Believing that our government is again in peril, we appeal to you who have fought to save it, and who hold it dear and more sacred than all party ties, to come to the rescue. Let the soldiers and sailors agreeing with us in sentiment, but who cannot in person attend, send delegates, through the action of their societies or local Conventions.

Let us meet in force at Cleveland on the 17th of September, the anniversary of the day when the Constitution was proclaimed by our forefathers, and let us aid in restoring the Union it created, and the liberties it was ordained to secure.

The following is a list of the Major and Brigadier Federal Generals whose names are signed to the call for an anti-Radical Soldiers' Convention, at Cleveland, on the 17th of September:

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall. The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

A. G. BRENIZER, Secretary.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
No Further Amendments.

FOR GOVERNOR.
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Union Men—The Military—The Judiciary.

Our readers are fully aware that, for months, a number of malcontents, or "so-called" Union men, in the upper counties of this State, have raised quite a clamor, alleging that they are persecuted by the people, persecuted by the Courts and the Judiciary, because of their Union principles. Petitions, remonstrances, and ex parte statements, have been sent to the Executive of the State and, also, to Washington, charging that these persecutions are wholly unjustifiable and carried on purely because of their Union principles.

We have unhesitatingly denied these statements and have challenged the proof in a single instance. No proof has been offered, and yet these false charges continue to be reiterated.—Recently, special complaint has been made against the Judges and Solicitors to the same effect, all of which have been met by a flat denial.

Gov. Worth, though confiding implicitly in the integrity and uprightness of our Judiciary and the Solicitors, and satisfied that the charges made were unfounded, nevertheless has given the complainants every opportunity to make good their charges, and consented to raise a special Commission to investigate these matters. He has left no stone unturned to vindicate the rights or redress the wrongs of every class of our people, and would do justice to all, "if the stars fall."

We are in possession of no facts in regard to these matters derived from the Executive office, which we are authorized to make public. But we hear it rumored, in unofficial circles, that the Commission has terminated its investigations and reported. In general terms, we learn that the investigation developed no sufficient grounds to sustain the clamor which has been raised. So far as the action of the Courts is concerned, we hear of no fact which implicates them. The high reputation which the North Carolina judiciary has always borne, has been sustained by the present Bench, as will be fully shown when the investigations and correspondence are made public.

It is true that, in various Counties in the State, both East and West, sundry bills have been found by the grand juries against lawless persons, who, acting with evil intent and by the instigation of the devil, and without any shadow of law or authority from the State or the United States, have been charged with and found guilty of stealing, burglary, arson, rape and murder, before a fair tribunal. In some of the Counties, most of these guilty persons, in order to screen themselves from just punishment, have found it to be to their interest to ally themselves with the fortunes of the "strait-sect" or the "so-called" Union men, and have been aided and abetted in their clamors by men of better personal character, but whose political ties lead them, for party purposes, to join in these denunciations.

The truth is, men who were devoted to the Confederate cause have greater cause of complaint than any others. In many counties, persons acting under the express orders of the de facto government have been arrested, tried and punished, for doing acts required by the authority which they were bound to obey, in utter disregard of justice and the laws of nations.—And their friends, though they feel the injustice and the wrong, raise no out-cry. In no instance has any man in this State been arrested and punished for any act committed under the authority of the United States, either during the war or since. But the strongest efforts have been, and are still being made, to arrest and punish men, who obeyed the law and authority under which they were acting—for acts for which they would be justified in the Courts of any nation, governed by law and justice.

One fact we must not omit to notice. We hear it rumored that Maj. Walcott, one of the Commission, appointed by the military to investigate the charges made by the "so-called" Union men, although he admits the groundlessness of many of the charges, if not all, alleged, recommends that a military officer be appointed to go along with the Judges, or to be present at the Courts, to prevent injustice to the Union men. If this be true, we are surprised that any man deserving the title of a lawyer should make such a suggestion. Of what avail is a civil Court, if it is to be subjected to military surveillance? It is an insult to the Judiciary which no lawyer should countenance. Our Judges will either not submit to such surveillance, or if military officers, attending upon their Courts for such a purpose, should transcend the bounds of propriety, and attempt to interfere with the due course of law, they will arrest them for contempt of Court. If President Johnson's late peace proclamation means any thing, it means that civil law is in the ascendant now in this State, and that the military, so long as they are in the State, are kept here to aid the civil authorities to execute the civil law, when their presence is needed, and not to arrest its due execution.

THE VOTE.—Seven Counties yet remain to be heard from officially,—the present majority for Rejection being 2,470.

We have been in error as to the time within which Sheriffs are required to make their returns. They are allowed twenty days from the 2d. Thursday in August. This gives them until the 29th inst.

A meeting to ratify the proceedings of the Philadelphia Convention is to be held in Lynchburg this week.

THERE ARE FOUR papers published in this State which openly and unblushingly advocate Radical doctrines and measures, and that seek the disfranchisement and degradation of their own fellow-citizens. The Radical organ in this city gives the other three the cue, and they take it up with an amusing fidelity. We might exhaust the language of metaphor in describing their fealty and attachment to their "Head Centre." They are like the parasite clinging to the toppling oak; like barnacles adhering to the sea-battered hulk of a vessel; like obedient little chicks running in at the maternal chuckle; or like the echo faithfully repeating the original voice. The readers of Shakspeare are familiar with the following scene between Polonius, the fawning old courtier, and the Prince of Denmark, which aptly illustrates the accommodating and mutual subserviency of these brethren of the Radical quill:

"Hamlet.—Do you see yonder cloud, that's almost in shape of a camel?

P.—By the mass, and 'tis like a camel, indeed.

H.—Methinks it is like a weasel.

P.—It is backed like a weasel.

H.—Or like a whale.

P.—Very like a whale!"

The Radical organ in this city has repeatedly asserted that the cause of the rejection by the people of the amended Constitution is to be found in their hostility to President Johnson's policy of reconstruction,—not that it cares anything for that policy, but because it would impeach the loyalty of the State. The Newbern Times catches up the unfounded allegation and proceeds to "ring the changes" upon it. Among other things, it says:

"In every county, so far as our knowledge extends, where the leading men of influence are, truly and honestly, supporters of Mr. Johnson's policy, ratification was carried by handsome majorities, while in those counties where this class of our fellow citizens hold the Ruffin doctrine, that Mr. Johnson is a usurper and cannot call Conventions, &c., to remodel and resuscitate State governments, ratification was lost by large majorities. 'Let the truth be told, though the heavens fall.'"

In the first place, there are but very few persons in the State,—not five hundred, we venture to assert,—who believe that the late Convention was an illegitimate body. Our people, with almost entire unanimity, concede its validity for specific and limited purposes. Its action, beyond what was required of it by the President as necessary to restoration, they regard as as unauthorized exercise of power, and for that reason, and for the further reason that they were indignant at its unnecessarily prolonged and expensive existence, they rejected its work.

But as to the other random charge of the Times: Does that paper consider Capt. Settle, "truly and honestly," a supporter of the President's policy? The county of Rockingham gave an overwhelming majority for rejection.—How is it, in the estimation of the Times, with Judge Reade, the President of the Convention, whose loyalty no man will question, whose county went very largely against ratification? How stand Mr. Donnell and Judge Warren? Beaufort went decidedly for rejection. How was it in Chatham, which has heretofore been regarded as the banner-county of strait-sectism? Largely against ratification! Per contra, the counties of Mecklenburg, Lincoln, and others which we might name, which have always been in bad odor with men of the Times stripe, for their alleged "disloyalty," gave decided majorities in favor of the amended Constitution.—We might multiply instances, but these are enough.

The Times must examine its ground more carefully, before it essays such strides another time.

The Freedmen.

It having been brought to the attention of the Governor, that certain officers of the Freedmen's Bureau construed Gen. Robinson's order of the 13th. July last, as retaining for the Bureau jurisdiction over all contracts between negroes and white men, whether witnessed or approved by the officers of the Bureau or not, the Governor addressed a communication to Gen. Robinson, dissenting from this construction. In consequence, the General has issued the following order:

BUREAU OF REFUGEES, FREEDMEN AND ABANDONED LANDS,
H'D Q'RS ASS. COM. STATE OF N. C.,
RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 8th., 1866.
GENERAL ORDERS.
No. 5.

General Orders, No. 3, current series, from these Headquarters, having been misunderstood, it is ordered, to prevent further misapprehension, that all claims for wages made by freedmen, under contracts not approved or witnessed by officers or agents of the Bureau, will be turned over to the civil authorities for adjudication. The nearest officer or agent of the Bureau will, when practicable, attend the Courts during the trial of such cases, and report upon the action taken, in order that, if it is apparent that the freedmen are unnecessarily delayed in the collection of their claims, jurisdiction over the case may be resumed by the Bureau.

By command of Brevet Major General Robinson,
CLINTON A. CILLEY,
Ass't. Adj't. Gen.

Gen. Robinson's Order.

So long as the Freedmen's Bureau is committed to the control of the Military, perhaps no serious objection will be urged against proper officers seeing that the freedmen are not kept out of their just dues unnecessarily; yet every reflecting man must see the incongruity and manifestly unconstitutional proceeding of having the action of civil courts reviewed by the military, even where negroes are concerned. So long as military officers charged with this delicate duty demean themselves properly, perhaps no difficulty may occur, but the Courts should not, in the least, compromise their dignity and self-respect, by allowing a needless and unlawful interference with these jurisdictions, by military men.

THE TRUSTEES of the "University of the South" are requested, by Bishop Elliott, Chancellor, to attend a meeting at Sewanee, the site of the University, on Thursday, the 11th day of October, for the transaction of important business.

A Portrait by a Friend.

The following protrait, by a friend, is true to the letter. Mr. Bain, we are glad to see, confirms the opinion of nine-tenths of our people in regard to Mr. Holden. It was the doubt, that a bitter politician, such as Mr. Holden had shown himself to be for twenty-five years, could do full justice, especially when it conflicted with his personal or political designs, that led to his rejection by the people as Governor.—Read the extract from the evidence taken by the Reconstruction Committee, as given in their recently published report:

RECONSTRUCTION COMMITTEE,
Washington, Feb. 15, 1866.

"REV. HOPE BAIN, sworn and examined by Mr. Howard, (Senator)—ANSWER: That he resides in Gold-sboro', N. C., has resided there eleven years, is by profession a clergyman of the Universalist denomination, was there during the rebellion all the time, except when absent on clerical duties. Gov. Holden appointed him a Justice of the Peace, &c., &c.

* * * * * * * * *

QUESTION: Do you regard Gov. Holden as a true Union man?

ANSWER: I really do not know what to say about that. I leave it in doubt. We are intimately acquainted. I think Gov. Holden would try to do right, but an aged politician, as he is, having a view to office, is easily swayed from the right path."

We will, at our leisure, give other extracts from this document. Let this suffice for the present.

THE Old North State, at Salisbury, referring to a statement in the New York Tribune that a State Convention would soon be held in Lexington, N. C. for the purpose of appointing delegates to represent the State in the Hamilton Sneak Convention, says:

"This is news to us. We have never heard of a District or State Convention proposed to be held there, but we think it quite probable that a few radicals of Davidson County, headed by Henderson Adams and Col. Billy Henderson, better kdown in Davidson as "Windy Billy," contemplate a County meeting for some such purpose. Billy was for secession before the appearance of President Lincoln's proclamation in 1861, and for a long time thereafter a rampant war man. When the Confederate cause began to wane he abandoned it, and became a simon-pure Union man. Some months ago he was in our office and asked us which party would triumph—that of the President or the Radicals. We told him it was doubtful, but we feared the success of the Radicals. He said that was his opinion, and therefore, he had thus far remained neutral between them. We suppose he is now entirely satisfied that the Radicals will succeed, and taken his side accordingly. If a delegate is to be sent from Davidson, we hope Billy will be the man. He has always been radical on some subject or other, and his great prudence, caution, and especially his excessive modesty amply qualify him for the position."

Billy Henderson is not the only now-Radical "Billy" in the State, who was for secession a long time before the war, and a rampant war man a long time after it was inaugurated.

The reputed list of delegates from Washington county, published on yesterday, in this paper, contains the names of several men who were for secession years ago. One of them, as long since as when the Hon. Kenneth Rayner was a candidate for Congress in the Edenton District, denounced every man,—Mr. R. among the number,—who was not ready to swallow his extreme views, as an "abolitionist," a "traitor the South," &c.

These cases are not exceptional. The Radical squad in this State is made up, almost exclusively, of precisely just such material.

Fratricidal Character of the War.

The Hon. Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio, one of the delegates to the late National Convention in Philadelphia, addressed a large mass meeting in that city on Wednesday evening. In the course of his speech he remarked:

"By way of illustrating the fratricidal character of the war, I will relate an incident: I had two brothers in the war; one, unfortunately, in the rebel army in Texas, and the other in the Union army. They were sons of one who, at the age of seventeen, fought at the battle of Eutaw Springs. One of my brothers, at the head of a regiment of Texans, fell in Louisiana, and the other, at the head of a Union regiment, fell at the battle of Chancellorsville. And the news of the death of both of these,—one on the one side, and the other,—reached their afflicted mother on the same day; and so it is everywhere, brother against brother upon fields of battle. The Convention meeting here will heal the wounds the war has made. From every State we come together,—from all the States,—in the common cause of American nationality." (Cheers.)

It is proposed, and we believe that the proposition orignated at the Philadelphia Convention that quite a number of Southern speakers shall canvass those Northern States in which elections are to occur this fall. The suggestion is a most excellent one, and we hope will be carried into effect. If the men of the North could meet the men of the South face to face, and hear them explain their views, their opinions of the state of public opinion in that much slandered section would be greatly modified, and kindly feelings and confidence now so much desired would be established at once. There are hundreds of splendid orators scattered through the South, who could not do the country better service than to mount the stump and enlighten the Northern people in regard to Southern sentiment. What have you to say to this proposition, Messrs. Henry, Haynes, House, Neil S. Brown, Bright and Bailey, of Tennessee; Alexander and Linton Stephens, Howell Cobb and Gov. Brown, of Georgia; Alex. White and C. C. Langdon, of Alabama; Sharkey, Allcorn and Yerger, of Mississippi; Gov. Orr and Gen. McGowan, of South Carolina, and Vance, of North Carolina? Now is the time to strike a telling blow. Will you do it?—Louisville (Ky.) Courier.

The annual address of Bishop Williams, of Connecticut, Episcopal, shows that 976 persons have been confirmed during the past year, 15 ordained in the deacouate and priesthood, and that there are 131 parishes on the roll of the Convention, and 153 clergymen. The parochial report gives 10,550 families, and 14,260 communicants.

The bell foundry at West Troy, N. Y., has just received some ten tons of fine copper and tin metal, which formerly constituted a portion of the machinery of the famous ram Merrimac or Virginia. This metal is to be cast into church bells.

Hon. James Brooks, of New York, so unjustly turned out from his seat by the Radical Congress, is likely to be re-elected, with scarce a show of opposition.

One Thousand Dollars Reward

IS OFFERED FOR THE APPREHENSION OF THE persons who, on the night of the 9th. inst., murdered Mr. John A. Cutchin, and robbed the store of Messrs. Garrett & Cutchin, at this place. About Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars in national currency were taken, and about Ten Dollars in Specie, besides a Double Case Silver Watch and the money taken from the pockets of the murdered man.

Suspicion rests on a young man who was working in the immediate vicinity, but who left the day after. He calls himself "William Bailey," says he has recently returned from Point Lookout; is about six feet high, slender, with dark hair, and with dark, though thin moustache; shaven immediately under the nose. He has "Sailor marks" on his arms made with ink, especially on his right arm. Says he ran away from his parents when 12 years old. Claims to have had a home in Hyde County. All persons are requested to arrest this man, or to forward to this place any information which may lead to his arrest and conviction. Address A. BRASWELL, at this place.

THE SENTINEL.

Friday Evening, Aug. 24, 1866.

CITY AND STATE ITEMS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Thomas Webb, Hillsboro, offers a liberal reward for the recovery of a mare stolen on the night of the 22nd.

Jno. W. Hays, Admr., gives notice to creditors and debtors of Justus Kinsey, deceased.

Oliver Ditson & Co., Musical Publishers, 277 Washington St., Boston, announce the the "Organ Manual."

Millhiser and Moses, No. 911 Main St., Richmond, Va., will conduct an extensive jobbing Dry Goods business. Merchants are invited to give them a trial.

The Board of Trustees of Randolph Macon College have elected a very able faculty, to take charge of that college on the 27th of September next. Rev. Dr. John C. Blackwell, A. M., has been elected to the chair of Chemistry and Natural Science; O. H. P. Corprew, A. M., to the Chair of Ancient Languages; Major Richard W. Jones, A. M., to the Chair of Mathematics, and Ernest Legard, A. B., to the Chair of Modern Languages. Dr. Blackwell will act as President pro tem. until a permanent appointment is made. Randolph Macon thus offers admirable advantages to students in pursuit of a collegiate education, and we hope all its friends will rally around it with a fresh zeal. See announcement.

Jesse Brown (with Hart & Lewis) offers for rent, for the balance of the year, the house and lot in the Eastern part of the City, known as the Hutchins house.

The grand Tournament and Ball at Jones' Springs, in Warren, will come off on the 31st inst., instead of the 14th prox., as heretofore announced. Maj. Hope, the liberal and enterprising proprietor, has made the most generous arrangements for the occasion. A good time, generally, may be expected.

SEE FIRST and fourth pages. On the former will be found the noble and patriotic call for the great Soldiers Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, on the 17th proximo.

N. C. MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE CO.—At a meeting of the Directors of this company, in this city, a resolution was adopted that steps be taken to wind up its affairs at once. The accumulation of losses, the failure of so many to renew their policies, and the delinquincy of others in meeting their assessments, have necessitated this step. The assets of the company will be faithfully assigned to the payment of its debts.

ARRIVALS AT THE YARBOROUGH HOUSE, August 23rd.—J. L. Jones, A. C. Morrison, N. C; T. M. Holt, Haw River; G. W. Richardson, Wilmington; Geo. W. Holleman, New Orleans; David Martin, N. Y; G. W. Lawrence, Fayetteville; C. C. Read, F. Nash, Hillsboro; W. M. Stevenson, Greensboro'.

AN OMEN.—The Editor of the Newbern Commercial has seen a young eagle taken from his eyrie in the neighboring forests, which measured thirty inches from tip to tip. This bird of liberty, the Commercial says, while passing the door of a noted radical, shrieked and fell to the pavement. No wonder that the monarch of the forest shrank with horror from such an abode.

MESSRS. BRENIZER, KELLOGG & Co. have purchased the Metropolitan Hotel, Greensboro, for the sum of $5,800, exclusive of furniture and fixtures.

NEGRO OUTRAGE.—The Greensboro' Patriot gives the particulars of a negro outrage in Guilford. It says:

"On Thursday night of last week, at a late hour of the night, Mr. John Wharton, who lives in the Eastern part of this county, was aroused from his slumbers by the reports of guns in the direction of his stock lot, a short distance from his house. On proceeding to his lot, he was halted by a negro man, and, receiving no answer to his enquiry who was there, snapped his gun at the negro, who, in return, fired on Mr. Wharton with an army-musket, hitting him in the head and breast with a number of shot. Mr. Wharton fell, and remained insensible for some time, but finally recovered sufficiently to make his way back to the house, when neighbors were summoned, and dogs put upon the track of the negroes, resulting in the arrest of Sam, formerly slave of Col. H. C. Dick, Carter, formerly the slave of M. D. Smith, and John, former slave of Mrs. Smith. These negroes are now in jail, and no doubt is entertained of their guilt. In the morning it was ascertained that these negroes had put a number of shot in one of Mr. Wharton's hogs, but did not succeed in carrying it off.

Mr. Wharton is in a very critical condition; but strong hopes are entertained of his recovery."

MRS. EUNICE WORTH.—This venerable lady died in this County on Friday of last week, the 17th inst., aged 76 years. She was the widow of the late Doctor David Worth. She died of cholera morbus, after an illness of three days. She was one of the most useful women that has ever lived in this County. As a Physician and Nurse, she had no superior in obstetrics. In energy and activity in business, she was hardly equalled in this region of country; and in this commendable virtue, she transmitted the same spirit to her offspring, male and female. During the war, at her advanced age, and when she was daily called upon to administer to the relief of the sick and afflicted, she found time to spin and weave, with her own hands, a beautiful suit of jeans for her son Jonathan, the present worthy Governor of the State. She was one of the most worthy members of the Society of Friends.—Greensboro Patriot.

RAYMOND TO BE EXPELLED.—A special dispatch from Washington to the Baltimore Sun says that a meeting of the Republican National Executive Committee, appointed at the Baltimore Convention, June 17th, 1864, is called for the 3d of September, at Philadelphia, to oust Mr. Raymond from his position as a member. George B. Genter, of Ohio, a member of the committee, refused to sign the call, giving as a reason that he now fully endorses the President.

The Louisville Democrat of Friday says: "The track is now conceded to General Rousseau to make the race for Congress without opposition."

[From the Richmond Whig.]

The Government Patronage North and South.

The President's declaration to the New Hampshire delegation that the recognition of the policy and principles enunciated in the Philadelphia platform will be required of those who receive office and patronage from the Government, is destined to exert a powerful influence in building up the new party. We presume that this test will not be confined to new applicants, but will be extended to those now in office.—The declaration means, doubtless, that none shall continue in or receive office who do not accept that declaration of principles. It will, in all likelihood, be inaugurated at once as the rule of the Administration, in order that it may operate upon the approaching elections in the Northern States. The elections will be held as follows: In California, the first Wednesday in September; in Maine and Vermont, early in September; in Pennsylvania, Ohio, and the Western States generally, in October; and in New York, Massachusetts, Maryland and Wisconsin, in November. But little time remains for work in Maine and Vermont, scarcely enough to test satisfactorily the operation of this new element in the elections. But there will be ample time to test its efficacy in the elections that are to take place in October and November.

The practical inauguration of this test in the Southern States at an early day is of considerable importance. Few if any Southerners hold Federal office in the Southern States. Nearly all the offices are filled with Northern men, a very great majority of whom are in sympathy and in active co-operation with the Northern Radicals. There is a sort of Northern encampment in the Southern States, made up of imported civil officers, agents of the Freedmen's Bureau, and paid Radical emissaries, who have industriously but secretly co-operated in the mischievous work of fomenting trouble between the whites and blacks, manufacturing falsehoods, and furnishing to their friends and patrons in Congress material for their crusade against the President and his policy. All the trouble that has occurred in the Southern States in the last nine months has been created by these men. They have at the same time been the President's worst enemies and most unscrupulous slanderers. They came here to make trouble, and as long as they remain there will be trouble. We have all perhaps observed how much unhappiness and misunderstanding one mischief maker may cause in a neighborhood. The South has been cursed with a swarm of unprincipled Radical mischief-makers who have been paid by the Federal Government and protected by its flag. An opportunity to break up the nest and get rid of the pestilent brood is now offered; and we hope, for the repose of the country, the preservation of the President from detraction and calumny, and the good neighborhood between the whites and the blacks, that the test will be rigidly applied, and that no man, whether he be a civil officer or a paid agent, or what not, will be allowed to hold his situation who does not openly and above board declare in favor of the President's policy. Every Southern community in which these people are stationed should constitute itself a committee of investigation to enquire into their sentiments and to report at Washington such as they ascertain to be in sympathy with the Radicals. These latter have had almost the monopoly of Southern spoils, and have for nine months ruled the North by means of the influence they have exerted from the South.

Patronage or no patronage, the people of the South are with the President. Not a vote could be bought with an office; but the judicious dispensation of government patronage at the South will exert a powerful influence upon elections at the North. Remove from the South the wretches who have manufactured the capital by which Northern Radicalism has been built up and sustained, and one of its main props and pillars is taken away. Put in their places honest and truthful Conservatives, and from them will emanate an influence that will strengthen the President and sustain conservatism in the North.

The patronage of the government has, until now, been wielded in the interests of what was the dominant party. They have had all the benefit of it. It is an immense engine of power, and we will presently see how they will get along without it. Henceforward, we hope to see it used to sustain the President and his policy, and to put down the Radicals and their policy.

PARDONS GRANTED.

Yesterday authority was given by the President to make out pardons for five persons from Missouri, two from Tennessee, one from Virginia, one from Texas, and one from Louisiana. All of the pardons were granted under the thirteenth exception of the amnesty proclamation, referring to individuals possessing twenty thousand dollars.—Star.

THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY CONVERTED TO THE PRESIDENT'S POLICY.

One of the curious incidents of the effect of the Philadelphia movement is the conversion of Mr. Chandler, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, to the President's policy. Mr. Chandler has hitherto been one of the most radical of the Radicals and the acknowledged head of the notoriously corrupt cotton ring in the department. To-day, however, he is anxiously inquiring how he can get on the President's platform, and loudly proclaiming his admiration of the Philadelphia declaration of principles.—Herald.

Mayor Monroe, of New Orleans, has resumed his official duties in that city. It will be remembered that he refused to act as a subordinate to General Baird, and his manly conduct has met the approbation of the President, who thus restores him to the free exercise of his civil functions. On any future occasion the military will pause seriously before attempting to supersede Mayor Monroe. The President thus shows, too, his contempt for those Radical publications that have endeavored to make the Mayor of New Orleans responsible for the riots in that city.

Mr. Sweet, a Radical farmer of Berlin, Ill, hired a negro to whom he expounded the Civil Rights bill in its most liberal bearing. Soon after, Mr. Nig, becoming very negligent, was berated soundly by Mr. Sweet, whereupon he turned on that gentleman and thrashed him well, remarking dat was de reconstruction he put on de gemman's lessons.

SOMETHING NEW
UNDER THE SUN.
A New Era In Medicine!
☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.
☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.
☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:
Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.
JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.
June 1, 1866.
DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.
JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.
This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.
WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.
The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.
New York, Jan. 11, 1866.
My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.
J. HARDY,
119 Georick Street.
Extract from Various Letters:
"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."
"Your Pills are marvelous."
"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."
"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."
"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."
"My nausea of a morning is now cured."
"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."
"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."
"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."
"Send me five boxes of your pills."
"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."
I have over 200 such Testimonals
As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

$50 REWARD.
Stolen out of my Stables, at my residence in Northampton County, near Murfreesboro, N. C., on the night of the 31st. July last, a LIGHT BAY HORSE, rather raw boned, with both hind feet white and a knot or toen on the inside of the right hind leg, between the hock-joint and thigh.
Said Horse is supposed to have been stolen by a freedman, calling himself Albert Graham, and who said that he formerly belonged to Col. Graham, of Charlotte, N. IMPORTANT SALE
IN WILSON NORTH CAROLINA
THE undersigned, having been duly appointed and empowered by the stockholders of
WILSON FEMALE SEMINARY, to make sale of that VALUABLE PROPERTY, including all the buildings, together with about Twelve and a fourth Acres of Land, will offer the same at public auction, on the 14th day of September next.
The Seminary is a large and commodious building, admirably arranged for school purposes, and contains a sufficient number of rooms to accommodate about TWO HUNDRED STUDENTS. The buildings are nearly new, having been erected in 1860, and are of every kind needed in a first class Seminary.
The Seminary is located on the Eastern boundary of the town of Wilson, below the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad, and on an elevated spot of ground, well shaded, and having excellent wells of water. The proverbial healthiness of the town of Wilson, (it being the highest point on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad,) and the morality, intelligence and refinement of its citizens, make it one of the most desirable locations for a first class, Male or Female, Seminary in the State.
Of the 12¼ acres of land a sufficient quantity will be sold for school or other purposes, together with all the buildings formerly used by Seminary, and the balance of the land will be sold in lots, the size of which will be announced on the day of sale.
TERMS OF SALE.—One-fourth cash; on the balance a credit of six months will be given.

Rain Upon the Roof.

BY W. L. SHOEMAKER.

The night, with her sable pinions,
Is hovering o'er the earth,
And far through her dark dominions
Ring tinkling tones of mirth:
The moon is no longer beaming,
And the clouds are all star-proof,
As I sit in my chamber, dreaming
Of the rain upon the roof.

There is no sound diurnal
E'er yields me such delight
As the step of the soft rain vernal
On the rattling roof at night:
I am wrapt in pleasant fancies,
While slumber is far aloof,
As I list to the dainty dances
Of the rain upon the roof.

The wind is waking and dashing,
The drops on the window-pane,
And the leaves, like cymbals clashing,
Keep time with the rythmic rain:
But no discordant clatter
Of a solitary hoof
Comes now to mar the patter
Of the rain upon the roof.

From the night so grim and sooty,
Will a morning fair arise,
With a myriad forms of beauty
To glad our wondering eyes:
For the spirit of Spring is working
At her marvellous web and woof,
And a part of her spell is lurking
In the rain upon the roof.

It brings to me a vision
Of flowers and fruitful trees,
In a land that seems elysian,
All alive with birds and bees;
Where sweetest songs are gushing
Aloud, without reproof,
And the rippling rills are rushing,
Like the rain upon the roof.

I see the grain grow greener
For the blessing of the skies,
That makes man's face serener,
And lights with joy his eyes:
I anticipate the pleasure
Heaven grants for his behoof,
And my heart leaps to the measure
Of the rain upon the roof.

Thus do I muse and listen
To the music of the rain,
Whose droops innumerous glisten,
Like diamonds through the pane:
And I'm wrapt in pleasant fancies,
While slumber is far aloof,
As I list to the dainty dances
Of the rain upon the roof.

A few days ago a young school mistress in the country was taking down the names and ages of her scholars, at the commencement of the term. She asked a little white-headed boy, "But, how old are you?" He said, "my name ain't Bub, it's John." "Well," said the school mistress, "what is the rest of your name?"—"Why, that's all the name I've got—dest John." "Well, what is your father's name?" "You needn't put pap's name down, he ain't cummin to school any; he's too big to go to school."—"Well, how old are you?" "I ain't old at all, I'm young."

A little girl, after having been to church, was very fond of preaching to her dolls. Her mother over-heard her one day reproving one for being so wicked. "Oh, you naughty sinful child," she said, shaking its waxen limbs. "You'll just go to that place of brimstone and molasses, and you won't burn up—you'll just sizzle."

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

BUCKEYE SULKY PLOW.

Being impressed with the necessity, and importance of economy in farming, I am happy to have it in my power to furnish to farmers at manufacturers prices the BUCKEYE COTTON & CORN CULTIVATOR OR SULKEY PLOW.

It is certainly the greatest improvement of the age in agricultural implements.

It will, with two horses and one hand, cultivate as much land, and do it as well, as four horses and four hands in the usual way; and the plower can either walk or ride at pleasure; which enables old or decripped men, who cannot follow the common plow to execute the work as well as the most robust.

It is manufactured by R. Sinclair & Co., Baltimore, at $70, and is the cheapest plow in use, because of the great saving in hands, teams and provisions. For further information upon the subject, address,
